Maryann Rimoin Selected as Peninsula Seniors Executive Director

Peninsula Seniors announced the selection of Maryann Rimoin as the nonprofit organization's Executive Director. Maryann, a long-time Peninsula resident and community volunteer, is now managing the Senior Center and coordinating the wide range of activities and services provided to the local community. She brings many years of management and administrative experience in both business and nonprofit organizations, including Las Candalistas. "We are looking forward to Maryanne's energy, enthusiasm, and new ideas. In addition to coordinating our current activities, she will be working with the Peninsula Seniors Board of Directors to implement new innovative activities that will better serve our members and grow the organization" said Peninsula Seniors President and former RPV Mayor Ann Shaw.
